

Didja Know?

- Do you know what the rules are to claim mileage when you go pick up that GSA vehicle on your way out of town?
- Take a look at the following to see what we mean.

You are going to the Armory to pick up a GSA sedan on your way out of town.

Then you ask yourself:
“Hey, can I claim mileage from my house to the armory?”.

And the answer is:
Maybe.... And Maybe NOT.
Next slide, please.

Here is the rule: You can claim mileage from your house to your Permanent Duty Station
IF and only IF your TDY is an Over-nighter.

But.....

If this is an out and back trip
you are not authorized mileage.

What regulation is THAT in??

The authority on that is in JTR C2192 and JFTR U3320.

You can even Google it!

Ta-Da!

So you see.... We don't just make this stuff up!
